Court adjance.

Court adjourned until this morning at CARRLESS.-Some men, when they get on a horse, seem as if they were in duty bound to send the animal at the top of its speed from the first jump. Yesterday an accident very nearly occurred through this reckless stupidity. A lady was crossing Lacour street, when a horseman turned the corner from Main street as if he were riding for his life. If it had not been for the lady's presence of wind she for the lady's presence of mind she would have been run over; as it was she had a narrow escape. Such recklessness should be avoided, as it is positively criminal.

New Annival .- On Saturday last the lady of our friend Herman Horst, of the New York Bakery, presented him with a son. The little fellow is none of the light weights, is as healthy and vigorous as is possible for a child to be. On Sunas is possible for a child to be. On Sunday Mr. Horst celebrated the event by motion, it was resolved that 13 members inviting a number of his friends to a splendid dinner, at which the health of the new comer and his parents was Chairman.—[Eureka Sentinel, 11. the new comer and his parents was drank in sparkling Krug. The occasion was a very pleasant one and Mr. Horst's guests enjoyed themselves greatly.

RECOVERING.—We called on our friend Joe Hoag yesterday, and found him rapidly recovering. We were much gratified at this, for Joe strives to do his duty as an efficient officer and a good citizen, and comes as near doing it as a man can. He has entirely recovered from the asasin like assault of the jail breakers, and the wound in his leg is rapidly heal-ing. We shall be glad to see Old Joe navigating round again.

SELF-TAUGHT.-The same decorations of Hanley's Hall provided for the use of the Pioche Minstrels were painted by an Indian artist named Mamagowena, who seems to have considerable taste for the fine arts. The other day we were shown a portrait of Washington, which was drawn by this native artist, and which was quite a meritorious production.

THE WEATHER. - Sunday and yesterday was very warm, but was agreeably diversified by several showers, which cooled the air greatly. Yesterday afternoon one of the most perfect and beautiful rainbows we have ever seen spanned the heaven.

THE court was in session yesterday and called the callendar, setting a number of cases and transacting other business, a report of which will be found under a proper head. It meets to-day at 10 o'clook.

BATHS. - During this hot weather bathing becomes a necessity as well as a luxury. At the San Jose Hotel every con-venience will be found for hot and cold baths, at a moderate price.

PERSONAL. -On Sunday last two old Piochers returned, whose familiar faces we were glad to welcome: Captain Lub-bock, of the Water Company, and J. Levin,

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. - There was no quorum present, and the meeting was anjourned until next Monday. TEL-E-SCOP-IC .- Comet brand of whisky, just received at Panaca Saloon, La-cour street. One Price! One Bit!

Chief Joseph says he will fight before he will be put out of the valley, and has sent runners to adjoining tribes in order to interest them in his came.

Calistona, July 10 .- About 50 cords of wood, piled ready to ship to the Napa of wood, piled ready to ship to the Napa Asylum, caught fire from blasting on the hills south of our town, and was con-sumed. Men are at work to prevent its spreading to other piles on adjacent hills. Los Angeles, July 10.—To-day a man
